Shared Business Services

Thank you for putting these webinars on. I have just listened to the National Insurance one and have a few more booked. I have found this really helpful and am especially looking forward to the payslip one. It is a brilliant idea as it demystifies things and answers questions you feel you should already know and so don't like to ask."

I logged on from the comfort of my own lounge, which was very convenient. The ladies who presented it were very clear and the presentation was extremely concise and easily understood. Well done."
